

English

Little Mouse's Big Book of Fears

- Recounts and discussions
- Using possessive apostrophes
- Writing a 'narrow escape' recount

Rainforest Stories (The Great Kapok Tree, The Shaman's Apprentice)

- Identifying and using paragraphs
- Writing own rainforest stories

List Poems and Kennings

- Discussing and evaluating different poetry
- Writing own list poems

Save the Rainforests!

- Persuasive writing – letters, speeches and blog posts
- Using possessive apostrophes and correct structures

Science

- Living things:
Identifying and grouping living things by classification
Recognising and researching food chains in the UK and other environments
Consider how changes in the environment effect living things.
- Electricity:
Understanding which appliances in the home use electricity
Constructing simple circuits
Investigate the conductivity of materials

Humanities

Jungles, deserts and sustainability

- Investigating the climate in the Uk and around the world
- Using climate graphs to understand climates and changes to them
- Investigating why jungles are wet and humid – the Amazon Rainforest
- Investigating why deserts are so dry – the Arica desert
- What does sustainability mean?
- How people try to be more sustainable in their daily lives
- How we can help to make our school more sustainable and the changes that we can make to our behaviour to help

Year 4 Spring Term

Maths

- Problem solving using multiplication and division
- Multiplying and dividing a two or three-digit number by a single digit number
- Measuring and comparing the area for rectilinear shapes
- Fractions – tenths and hundredths
- Equivalent fractions and fractions greater than 1
- Adding and subtracting fractions
- Finding tenths and hundredths of a number
- Using decimals to solve problems

R.E

- Buddhism and Buddha's teachings:
The key question that we will be exploring is: Could the Buddha's teachings make the world a better place?
- Christianity:
We will considering the Big Question – Why do Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'?
We will explore this question through the Easter story and what this teaches Christians about forgiveness

Computing: Researching, exploring and using Logo to create algorithms and simple programmes
Art / D.T: Learning about the art of Mike Webber and creating multimedia artworks in his style
French: Food – types of foods, what we like to eat and where we eat them
P.E: Fitness and swimming
Music: Samba drumming with the Dorset Music Service
PSHCE: Keeping myself safe: understanding the differences between dangers, hazards and risks; internet safety; medicines and keeping safe at home.
Rights and Responsibilities: understanding your rights; looking at the media; looking at how we can make a difference; looking at simple finances.